

Open Call for the January 2025 edition of the Artist in Residence Programme
Pavillon K - Center for Performing Arts in Vordingborg

Pavillon K is announcing OPEN CALL for the January 2025 edition of their Artist in Residence Programme in Vordingborg, Danmark.

Pavillon K is an association of 12 local performing arts companies working in close collaboration with the regional theatre. Pavillon K is also a venue hosting, among other events, 3 performing arts festivals for audiences of all ages. Pavillon K is a lively performing arts hub wishing to inspire and be inspired.

The programme offers a 2 weeks long residency between the 6th of January and the 2nd of February 2025

The residency is open to companies and collectives working within the field of performing arts including physical & visual theatre, performance, dance, circus, trans-sectorial and mixed media.

The programme supports performing arts projects in development, not projects that are already finished.

In its 2025 edition the programme focuses on professionals developing their working methods and artistic careers, therefore the age of the applicants must be below or equal to 35.

The Open Call welcomes applications from companies with a homebase in Denmark and companies based elsewhere in the world and collectives of international artists connected by a common project.

The programme provides the following:

- 3000 DKK symbolic stipend per artist for up to 3 artists
- Accommodation in a 3-room apartment with basic amenities for up to 3 residents
- Coverage of travel costs up to 3500 DKK in total for an international company and up to 1000 DKK in total for a domestic company
- Working studio space at Pavillon K
- Basic sound and light setup
- Support and assistance from the community of Pavillon K member artists and the house technician
- Help in organizing and promoting an event in relation to the residency: artist talk, work in progress presentation, workshop or other dissemination format suggested by the artists.

Application deadline - 15th December 2024

Answer from Pavillon K - 20th December 2024
